Doug was born on July 7, 1963 in Grand Island, son of William and Shirley (Mieth) Lighthill.

Doug earned his education in Grand Island, graduating from Northwest High School in 1982. He was employed at many local Grand Island companies over the years. He started at JBS after graduation and was employed for many years at Ag Chem before they relocated out of town, he had the opportunity to relocate but he didn't want to be so far away from his family. He spent the next five years caring for his mother so she didn't have to be placed in a nursing home. Doug reentered the workforce after his mother's passing and was currently employed by DHL.

"Uncle Doug" enjoyed spending time with all of his nieces and nephews, teaching them about muscle cars or life in general. Doug was always willing to offer his advice and guidance, whether or not it was asked for. He enjoyed playing pool, riding motorcycles and country western music and dancing. Doug was always a phone call away when his family needed him. His skill set matched anything his family asked helping in any way he could.

He is survived by his sisters, Vicki (Paul) Ewers of Grand Island, Patricia "Trish" West of Dannebrog, and Tracy Schuyler of Grand Island; nieces and nephews, Michele (Phil), Chad, Katheryn (Troy), Shawn, Amber (Scott), Kim and Trey; eight great-nieces and nephews; aunt and uncle, Dewey and Colleen Mieth of Rockville.

Doug was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Dennis.
