

Edra Joyce Lee

February 15, 1924 - September 12, 2017

Edra Joyce Lee, 93, of Grand Island went to her heavenly home on Tuesday, September 12, 2017.

Service will be held at 10:00 a.m. Friday (Correction on day of service, not as stated in Wednesday's paper) at All Faiths Funeral Home. There is no visitation. Burial will be in Westlawn Memorial Park Cemetery.

Edra was born February 15, 1924, in Oconto, NE, the daughter of Henry and Lottie (Brown) Preston. She grew up on the family farm near Oconto.

Following high school, Edra attended secretarial school at Sioux Falls, SD. She was united in marriage to Ira J. Lee on August 21, 1946 at Smith Center, KS. The couple resided in Denver, CO, before relocating to Grand Island in 1955.

Edra was a member of the First Baptist Church of Grand Island. She especially enjoyed her family, gardening, sewing and Bible study. Her faith was her cornerstone and Edra was a true Prayer Warrior, praying for everyone she knew.

Those left to cherish her memory include her daughter and son-in-law, Dawn and John Furlong of Grand Island; fifteen grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren and eight great great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, in 2011; two sons, James Lee and Marlin Davis; three sisters, Fay Towle, Gladys Ransley and Iris Boyd; and brother, Vere Preston.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated at a later date.

“ For my dearest dearest grandma. I love you so much and am sure you are very happy to meet your Lord! I will always remember walking to your home after school, we would play Parchesee on your homemade board and you would be cooking with my favorite being your homemade chicken and noodles!! Loving you always!

“ I'm her Granddaughter Jenn. She called me her "Wendy's Girl". She and I were housemates for awhile in 2015 and I remember hearing her playing "Blue Eyes Crying in the Rain" on the organ. For a lady who couldn't see or hear very well, she played that like a pro!

Mom I miss so very much. I was such a lucky child to have the parents that I had , (you and dad). You both taught me to be honest, caring and forgiving . I would not trade any ones parents for the ones I had , I had the BEST I'm happy that you and dad and Marlin and Jim are all sharing time together now. I know that is what you wanted, but I still miss you, Give dad and the boys a hug for me. I miss them too. Dawn
