“ Met Elaine shortly after moving. We have a little dog and would meet Elaine and BoBo out for his walk. She always stopped to visit and ask how things were going and if we were getting settled in our new neighborhood. Always a smile and a kind word.. Prayers to the family..

“ My wife and I got to know Elaine after she became our neighbor. We would frequently visit with her when she walked her little dog BoBo. She loved hearing stories and seeing photos of our grandchildren.

She also loved to share what was going on in the lives of her family and often spoke of her children and of her grandson Shane.

When it became difficult for her to continue to walk BoBo, (especially during the winter months) she asked if I would walk him for her. Over time we were honored to be entrusted to take care of BoBo full time, we quickly became best of friends, and we did our best to care for him as well as Lloyd and Elaine had done for so many years.

We always enjoyed visiting with Elaine. She was always upbeat and pleasant even to the end.

She will be missed.

Our deepest condolences to her family, Christy and Charley, and Corey and Shane.
