“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Elizabeth's family. I visited with her while she was here in York and offered her any assistance she wanted. All she wanted was some cup o' noodles, hot water, (don't add it to the noodles she said) and if it wasn't against my religion a pack of cigarettes. I sat and talked for a while and she shared some of her thoughts on life. It was all good, no bad. She never would tell me her name, so I called her Mary.
I am so sorry that the family's search for her has ended this way, but know that she had touched so many lives during her short stay here York NE.

Dear Jennifer,
Thank you for your kindness to my sister Betsy.
It is interesting you called her Mary...
That was our paternal grandmothers name,
The middle name of our maternal grandmother
The middle name of our mother

And I named my youngest daughter Mary!
