

Ermagene F. Hiser

June 11, 1931 - November 13, 2020

Ermagene F. Hiser, 89, of Grand island, Nebraska passed away on Nov. 13 at Tiffany Square Center. A celebration of life service will be held at a later date. All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements.

Ermagene was born on June 11, 1931 in Sargent, Nebraska to Elmer and Hazel Brechbill. She was raised and received her education in the Sargent area.

On Aug. 17, 1947 she was united in marriage to Richard Hiser. Following their marriage, they lived in Burwell, Nebraska before moving to Arkansas and later to Grand Island, Nebraska. Three children were blessed into this union.

Ermagene was a member at the Evangelical Free Church in Grand Island, Nebraska. In her spare time, she loved playing cards, coloring, and doing puzzles. Bingo, however, was her favorite. She also enjoyed caring for her horses and dogs. Ermagene was a diehard Husker fan. She cheered them on and always thought they did great even they lost. Her room at Tiffany was decorated with Husker deco and family photos.

Those left to cherish her memory include her children daughter Lana and Charles Staab, daughter Tammie and Kevin Heuer; daughter-in-law, Judy Hiser; six grandchildren; three step grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; nine step great grandchildren.

Ermagene was preceded in death by her husband, Richard; and son, Ricky Hiser.

Memorials are suggested to the family.

“ Dick & I will never forget the good times we had through Meyers Farm Equipment and your parents. I was fortunate enough to visit with your mom right before Covid shut everything down and will ever be thankful that I got to see her. What a wonderful family!

“ Ermagene was a sweet lady. We had talks about our Lord. When she was quarantined in her closed room, she never complained, but would show me some of her many pictures she was coloring. I will miss her smile, but know she is rejoicing in the Lord with a new body.
