

Etta E Catchpool

November 4, 1924 - February 3, 2024

Etta E. Catchpool, 99, of Grand Island passed away on Saturday, February 3, 2024 at Primrose Retirement Community. Per her wishes, a private family service will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Catchpool was born on November 4, 1924 to Frederick and Minnie (Schleeter) Nowka, on the family farm near Harvard, NE. She attended country schools until entering Harvard High School, from which she graduated in May 1942.

Etta was united in marriage to Warren Catchpool on October 22, 1946 in Hastings, NE. In 1963, they moved to Broken Bow, and relocated to Grand Island in 1967.

Throughout her lifetime, she held several office positions, and in later years, always needing to be busy and active, enjoyed working in the Nutrition Services Program with the Grand Island Public Schools for 15 years.

Her enjoyments were being included in any and all family activities, being outdoors in God's nature, taking long walks, loving each of the dogs entrusted into her care, and she was especially fond of the memories of the years spent with family and friends at their Johnson Lake cabin.

Survivors of the immediate family include her children, Willis (Peggy) Catchpool of LaVista, NE, Deborah (Paul) Greenawalt of Peoria, AZ, Brian Catchpool of Grand Island, NE; grandchildren, Barry (Jennifer) Brown, Jason Catchpool, Jennifer (Jason) Tanner, Regan (Jeffrey) Iske; and six great grandchildren.

Etta was preceded in death by her husband in 2000; her parents; two sisters; and one brother.
