

Frank M. Naranjo

July 14, 1927 - March 30, 2020

Frank M. Naranjo, 92, of North Platte went to his Heavenly home on Monday, March 30, 2020 at the Great Plains Medical Center, with his beautiful wife of 72 years holding his hand.

Private family services will be at 2 PM (CDT) on Sunday, April 12th at All Faiths Funeral Home in Grand Island. The service will be live-streamed on All Faiths Funeral Home, Grand Island, NE Facebook page. His son, Daniel will officiate.

Private family burial will be the following day in the North Platte Cemetery. Father Vidya Sagar Arikotla will offer the blessings at the graveside.

A celebration Mass of Christian Burial and reception will be announced at a later date.

Memorials are suggested to Holy Spirit Food Pantry, the North Platte Salvation Army, or the Naranjo Family Scholarship Fund through the North Platte Public Schools Foundation.

Francisco, known as “grandpa Frank” to many, was born July 14, 1927 on a family ranch near Trujillo, New Mexico, the son of Leopoldo and Juanita (Trujillo) Naranjo. He was one of 17 brothers and sisters. Frank left home at the age of 14 on his journey of hard work and becoming the man God had planned for him. This journey included working on ranches; breaking-horses, herding sheep and making numerous friendships along the way. He ended up in Cheyenne, Wyoming where he married the love of his life, Bersabe “Bertha” Abeyta on August 18, 1947. This union was blessed with children, Johnny,

Betty, Ernie, Larry, Tony, Daniel and Michelle.

Frank and Bertha moved to North Platte, NE in 1949. Frank worked for Union Pacific Railroad for a total of 43 years until his retirement. He was a lift-truck operator at the freight house until its closing and then as a crew driver for the yard office. During this time, he also managed the stockyards for U.P. when cattle were still being hauled by rail.

Together, Frank and Bertha shared their love with everyone. They loved unconditionally, from their family to all their adopted family as well. Their walk with "Baby Jesus" was evident by the passion they had of feeding and blessing the many homeless along the way.

Some of Frank's enjoyments included his love of horses, the slot machines (always bet the max), making friends with everyone he encountered and his many years with the Nebraskaland Days Shootout Gang. Many along the way called him "Dad and grandpa". He was truly loved by all. He is a charter member of Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

Those left to cherish his memory are his wife of 72 years, Bertha; their children, Betty Pinkerton of Ft. Collins, CO; Larry (Jo) Naranjo of North Platte, Tony (Sharon) Naranjo of Lincoln, Daniel (Korinna) Naranjo of Grand Island, Michelle Naranjo of Scottsdale, Arizona and Herman (Rosa) Naranjo of Greeley, CO; daughter-in-law, Carrie Naranjo; adopted children, Donna Solie, Vicky and John Smith and Bill and Pam Green; grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, John and Kristi Naranjo (children Tawneesha, Justin and Abbey-Ari and Liam and Samantha), Beki and Ed Pettigrew (child Raquel-her children Ryder and Raegan), Deanna and Shane McDade (children, Tyson, Bryce and Kobe), Tony Solie (children Ashlee, Drew, Cash and Adysson), Richard Solie, Joseph Solie (children Sean, Megan and Russell), Michal and Jackie Pinkerton (children Miranda and Rick Furlong, Quintin, Alexis and Hayden), Melissa and Rob Gardner (children Sierra-child AnaBelle and Logan), Mindy and Bruce Kennie (children Zac-child Ava, Amelia and Emily), Nikki and Randy Barker (children, Tyler and Erika, Jace, Treyce and Jernie), Johnny and Shawna Naranjo (children Kendal and Levi), Eric Naranjo (child Julianna), Luke and Theresa Naranjo (children Caje and Tydus), Tammy and Barry Wheeler (child Gavin), Dan Anderson, TJ Naranjo (children Dawn Marie and Eric Fey-children, Sophia, Zayden and Jackson and Anthony and Alex), Brandi and Tom Roper, Jason Naranjo (children Nathaniel and Kadin), Luke and Leona Bailey (children London and Lyla), Nikki and Brandon Wright (children Vanessa, Isaac, Julianna and Brandon, Jr.), Kaytlyn and Joel Henson (children Thomas and Myla) and Dylan Naranjo and Frank's little buddy, Hudson McCoy; brothers, Nasario and Bernie Naranjo; sisters, Delores Trujillo, Bessie Duran, Pauline Duran and Eva Yara and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins whom all were greatly loved.

Frank is preceded in death by two sons, Johnny and Ernie; great grandkids, Alexis Wheeler, TJ Barker, Aiden Naranjo, Tiara and Nathaniel Solie; his parents; his siblings, Selso Naranjo, Alfonso Naranjo, Manuel Naranjo, Joseph "Gabe" Naranjo, Beatrice Trujillo, Leo Jr. Naranjo, Adolfo Naranjo, Mary Trujillo, Cecilio Naranjo and Stella Trujillo.

“ Miss Me - But Let Me go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.*

*Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me ,but let me go*

*For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all of life's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the family and friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me and let me go.....*

Our deepest Condolences from the Ruiz Family..

“ Dear Dan and entire Naranjo family,
What a remarkable family man and humanitarian Frank was and is as his legacy lives on. We are so saddened for your loss. Our most heartwarming memory of Frank and Bertha is when they "sheltered" our mother, Agnes Ayoub, under a shade tree at a baseball game in North Platte, when our son Max and Frank's grandson were playing. A strong family bond was made that day. Agnes passed away 3 1/2 years ago, so we are confident she welcomed Frank into heaven and they are sheltering under a tree now.
Sending wishes for peace and comfort.
Sincerely, Jacalyn and George Ayoub

“ To Dan Naranjo and family,
I did not know Frank but read in the Omaha World Herald of his passing. I would have truly enjoyed his gentleness , compassion, work ethic, love for nature, western cowboy life, his stories and mostly his love for people and gift of faith. I do know Dan, his kindness and compassion through the passing of my parents and last year losing my nephew Scott Goodman in the flood at Norfolk. We count our blessings of these kind souls that help us through these difficult times in our lives. Yes, they are the heroes in life. Frank is so right, "we're only on this earth for a little time and then we will all go home".
