

Freda Joy Traill

April 1, 1924 - July 6, 2023

Freda Joy Traill, 99, formerly of Grand Island, passed away on July 6, 2023 in Broken Bow.

Freda was born on April 1, 1924 in Ansley, Ne, to Herman and Lottie (Schmidt) Baller. She was the youngest of their four children. She grew up on the family farm attending a country school in her younger years, and graduating from Westerville High School in 1942. At the age of 18, Freda moved to Grand Island.

During WWII, Freda helped by working on farms. She met her husband, James Traill, after the war at a Veteran's Club. The couple were united in marriage on January 13, 1951. The couple were married for almost 30 years, until James' passing in 1980.

Freda spent time working as a waitress at Yancy, as a clerk in a grocery store, and also worked in customer service. In her spare time, she enjoyed gardening her flowers, spending time with her family and friends, reading, quilting, and watching Husker football.

Those left to cherish her memory include her nephews, Karl, Gregg, and James.

Freda was preceded in death by her husband, James; infant son, Tommy; parents; and siblings, Florine, Frances, and Dalbert.
