“ *For many years my mother worked with Gail at St. Francis in housekeeping. As an employee there myself, I came to know Gail through her relationship with my mom and found Gail to be a very kind lady. She often bopped in my office to say "hello" and I am sad today to see Gail has passed.
Please accept my condolences,

“ I have fond memories growing up on Kufus Ave in Ravenna, NE. One of the memories is playing with Gail in the play house her Dad made. Great times, lots of laughs and maybe we were a bit ornery and got in a little trouble now and then! LOL I remember "we" trimmed Peggy Pritchards hair once. We did get in trouble for that one. My friend, you will be missed. Thoughts and prayers to Gail's family and friends. Hugs and Love from Julie Dimmitt-Shoop
