“ Well so much to say but where to begin. This is the most important man in my life. He always made people laugh I matter what. He loved to do alot of things but his number one thing in his life was his 1942 knuckle head. WILD THING. His pride and joy. He loved to fish,arts and crafts, music and play santa for the kids. He will beissed by many people. He was an awesome father who I love and miss very much. But I know he is out of pain and resting now. Until we meet again pops I love u!
