

"Ginger" Phala E. Boll

May 16, 1945 - May 7, 2016

Phala Elizabeth "Ginger" Boll, 70, of Grand Island died on Saturday, May 7, 2016 with her family at her side.

Mass of Christian burial will be at 11:00 a.m. Thursday at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church. Father Todd Philipsen will officiate.

A gathering of friends and family will be from 10-11 a.m. at the church. All Faiths Funeral Home is serving the family.

Ginger was born on May 16, 1945 in Grand Isle, Louisiana to Ernest and Mellenzie (Terrebonne) Roy. A member of a military family, she grew up in Germany and Grand Isle, Louisiana. Ginger was the second daughter in a family of sixteen children. The family relocated to Grand Island in 1965.

Ginger cherished her family. She is survived by her three sons, Todd Hartford, John Hartford (Tanya), and Mark Hartford, all of Grand Island; and the love of her life, Don Davis and his daughter, Melissa (John) Hoggatt, also of Grand Island. Her sunshine and the subject of her photography were her 14 beloved grandchildren and six, almost 7, great-grandchildren. She was also survived by her brothers and sisters, Nellie (Jorge) Luna of Grand Island, Ernest W. Roy Jr. of Omaha, Linda (Ron) Disney of Grand Island, Cynthia Meeker of Rogers, AK, Henry Roy of Marquette, Robert Roy of LaVista, Timothy (Cheryl) Roy of VA, Mike (Lisa) Roy of Elkhorn, Rick Roy of Grand Island, Angela Majorins of Grand Island; brother-in-law, Raymond Utterback of Central City; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two infant children; brother, David

Roy; sisters, Lena Utterback, Caroline Roy; and sister-in-law, Judy Roy. For several years Ginger was employed at 3D Ammunition in Doniphan before the plant closed. She maintained her membership with the Doniphan Legion. Besides her enjoyment in being the family photographer, she enjoyed making jewelry which she had available at the craft fairs and always had room in her heart and home for her many cats. Those closest to her will never forget her sincere, wonderful spirit.

Memorials are suggested to GRACE Foundation Inc. (Grand Island Area Cancer Endowment).
