“ Tom and Glen. Just heard about your Dad yesterday. I'm very sorry for your loss. When I was young your Dad told me stories about his time in the Navy. He also tried to teach me chess. I know that was extremely frustrating for him since none of my moves made any sense. They did, however, ruin his plans. He will be missed.

“ I remember Glen when I was growing up because his brother, Jack, was married to my sister so our parents always knew each other and I remember going to Tootie's house when I was young. He obviously loved his two sons and granddaughter and I am sure you all brought joy into his life. You are never ready to lose someone you love so keep him in your hearts and memories.
