“ He knew my head and hair better than anyone I know...he cut it for years given I worked at the nearby veterans home. Always enjoyed visiting with him. I talked retirement to him a lot and touted its benefits but he never seemed to let go of work...may he rest in peace now...unless they need barbers in heaven.

“ So sad to hear about your dad. I have many great memories of both your folks on Division Street. They were young parents, a generation younger than mine, but I admired their work ethic and what good people they were. My very best to Jane, Chris, Theresa and Joan. Cass Grange

I will miss Hal, working at Hair Options from the first day(over 6 yrs.) He made me feel right at home. Us Hairdressers enjoyed his smile and the little tricks of him seeing if he could make us jump with his soft little Boo! He always had a smile. He was just a kind, friendly person. RIP HAL.
