

Heather Fern Robertson

October 13, 1975 - September 3, 2024

Heather Fern Golden, born October 13, 1975, ascended to her Heavenly home on September 3, 2024, after a courageous battle with diabetes and its complications.

Heather was renowned for her fierce love of family and friends. Her heart was open to all, whether human or animal, and she found joy in the company of those she loved. Her infectious smile and laughter had a way of turning strangers into friends, and her tender-hearted nature was balanced by a courageous spirit that fiercely championed the causes she believed in.

Heather was the devoted mother of two sons. She entrusted one to the care of another, while her beloved son Joseph was the light of her life. In her later years, Heather dedicated herself to making her home a sanctuary of warmth and love for all who entered.

Heather was predeceased by her husband, Charles Robertson; her father, Kenneth Golden; her mother, Barbara Golden; her sister, Laura Wampole; and her nephew, Richard Wampole.

She is survived by her son, Joseph Robertson (and his partner, Aspen Baxter); her granddaughter, Millie Robertson; her siblings Brad Golden, Marsha Mars, Tom Howell, Shawn Golden, and Chantz Golden; and her longtime partner, Kyle Hawkins.

A celebration of Heather's life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to the family for future designation.

Heather's spirit of kindness and resilience will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

“Heather was my best friend "sisters by heart" complications separated our friendship for awhile. We recently patched things up and it was back to normal as if nothing was wrong. She touched my life in so many ways there are no words to described the love we shared. She always had positive words to guide me through bad things in life. We shared so many common things in life. The best memories I have of her are on holidays. We shared so many friends givings and Christmases. No matter where I go in life there will always be memories sneak up of her and they will guide me through. Heather Thank God for me for giving me the gift of knowing you.
