“ Great Aunt Helen, you were the best. The stories you use to tell us kept us in stitches. The baby in the back seat , the clip board story...my favorites. We even made you show us your drivers license at mom's 50th birthday because you were so much younger looking than your age. Such a lovely woman and so happy to have been a part of it. God Speed..RIP Your family from the Royle family and Fowlers

“ My condolences to the family of Helen! I am grateful growing up I had to opportunity to get to know her. Her home was always open to me and Tom your comments were spot on! Her disciplinarian side was quick and just, especially if you took her old Dodge out for a midnight ride without permission! ;-)

“ My Mother, Mom as I always called her , my parent, teacher, friend, disciplinarian, and counselor. A Person who taught respect to others, a person that was determined with teaching right from wrong and living by it. A person that would overlook something one did wrong, but again, wait to see if you corrected it. She would give you the chance to correct your mistake properly. If not, give advise on how to make it proper. Helen was full of life. She was a person that led all people to enjoy life to it's fullest potential. In life there are followers or leaders, My Mom was definitely a leader. Her biggest goal in life was happiness to her family, and she nailed it. My Mom, faced many obstacles in her life and she prevailed. A legend in my life and now, an extreme loss in my life. Sweet dreams Mom, I love you and good night, don't let the bed bugs bite.

I remember Helen well and have so many fond memories of her! She could always make you laugh! She was a lady who never seemed to age...forever young! Always had a smile and a funny story to tell... Helen made my Wedding cake when I got married...she made the BEST cakes. She was just an all round good person. Heaven has gained an Angel....
