

Helen Margret Irish

December 29, 1932 - October 20, 2023

Helen Margret Irish, 90, of Doniphan, passed away on Friday, October 20, 2023.

Memorial service and celebration of Helen's life will be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, October 30, at Calvary Lutheran Church with Pastor Sheri Lodel officiating. Helen's ashes will be buried with her husband in Grand Island City Cemetery.

Helen was born December 29, 1932, on the family farm at Kimball, South Dakota, the daughter of Joseph and Anna (Petula) Bravek. She received her education in a rural school with stories of walking in snowdrifts over the fences.

Helen was married to Eugene Beutner and they had two children, Julie and Pamela. She later married Earl "Stan" Irish and they had one son, Clay.

When the family relocated to Nebraska and to Grand Island, Helen worked at the Ordinance Plant until it closed. She then was employed with Aguilar Lawn and Janitorial for 40 years. Helen was happy pushing her buffer. "It is a job where you can see the shining results!", was her comment. All of her grandchildren had ridden the buffer at one time or another.

Those who cherish her memory include her children, Pamela Hasselman and Clay (Alejandra) Irish; son-in-law, Mike Pokorney; and sisters, Mary Korzan, Betty (Jim) Hoing and Norma (Dennis) Wright.

She is also survived by seven grandchildren, Amber Pokorney and son, Braydon, Sara (Nate) Collister and their sons, Dylan and Logan, Travis

(Courtney) Hasselmann and their children, Kylee and Hadlee; Dustin (Kayla) Hasselmann and their children, Ashton, Lillian, Bentyn and Hudstyn, Jacob (Makayla) Irish, Kellie Irish and Tyler Irish and his son, Ritchie.

She was preceded by her husbands, Eugene and Stan; her parents; daughter, Julie Pokorney; brother, Ben Bravek; and sister, Dorothy Bravek.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated at a later date.
