“ Many memories with Auntie Helen. We often stayed at her apartment when we were in town and it was always in pristine order. Many beautiful ceramics that her sister Auntie Eileen made were on display and I would often sneakily touch them as they were so pretty. I recall her marking us meals- and she had to hand light her gas stove which was intriguing. Last time I visited her was with my children at auntie Eileen’s house. It was great seeing them both and they were able to meet my kids who were older at the time. She always remembered birthdays and sent cards which were greatly appreciated. Many prayers for Auntie Helen. Joan Kay
