Friday, August 16th, heaven gained an absolute angel. Not many could say that they had someone like Ila in their lives. We all are extremely grateful to have been a part of her life. We and everyone who knew Ila has been so lucky to learn from her for the last century. Ila taught us to never take anything for granted, and to be present in every individual day. She taught us that every moment matters. We all know that she made a great impact on each and every one of our lives. Ila, we know that you will paint the sky so beautiful and watch us continue to learn and grow from above. Anybody who was lucky enough to know her, knows she was the kindest, sassiest, and most loving person. She is forever our cover girl. Fly high and we will all see you again someday. -Rylee Snyder (Great Granddaughter)

“ Mike, Tim and families. So very sad to learn of Ila's passing. I am so very thankful I was able to talk to her last week. Thanks Mike for calling. So wish we could have made it out to see her. We were so blessed to have known her for over 45 years and neighbors for 30 years. Ila was the first neighbor we met. We loved having your parents for neighbors and being able to know such incredible people. Ila's loving care for Ben before his passing was amazing. Ila was a strong, independent woman and she dearly loved her family. She was so helpful to friends, family, and neighbors. Admired her so much. I loved what her great granddaughter, Rylie, wrote. So well said. Every time I make dinner rolls or cinnamon rolls or pies with the recipes she shared, I think of her. Our family asks me to make the rolls when we're together. Thanks, Ila, for your friendship and love. You all were so blessed to have for 100 plus years. We are praying for you that you will sense God's arms of love surrounding you and comforting you in the days ahead. God bless you all.
