“ I got to meet Ira several years ago, and followed him on Facebook since. Ira was a talented and patriotic man, and I'm sure his loss is painfully felt. I know that I am a better man for knowing Ira. Peace.

We've never met Ira but I did get involved in a few debates on your mom's Facebook page(always fun) Many people don't have close relationships with their family or parents, but I could see that you and Deb did. The mother and son relationship was very beautiful between the two of you. So happy that you have all these memories with your son he's as special as you are! Deb love you, wishing you many prayers through the hard days ahead for you and your family!
