“ Isaac was the type of friend everyone wants to have. He was funny, selfless, smart, and kind. He was an incredibly supportive and passionate person. He loved his friends and he loved his family. He would've moved mountains for them.

I'll never forget our night time drives of karaoke, him teaching my college roommates the boot scoot n boogie line dance, going to concerts, and the countless hours of gaming.

My life is and was better because he was a part of it. I will miss him forever. He was like a brother to me and was one I could always rely and confide in.

Rest in peace, Isaac.

“ I'll never forget when Grandma would tell us to "STAY OUT OF HER OFFICE" and I soon as she went upstairs, we'd sneak in.. hide under the tan desk and just write stuff. We always felt like spies doing that because it was like a mission. Miss you. Love you.

“ While I did not have the privilege of knowing Isaac personally, it feels like I got to know him a lot in the past week through the memories of all his colleagues at Vant4ge. His dedication to his work and the positive impact he made on his colleagues in Boise speaks volumes about his character. It is clear from the memories shared that he was a devoted son, brother, and friend who lived his life fully. Isaac's contributions to our Vant4ge family will be remembered and his loss is already felt across our entire organization. May your memories of his fierce love and joy bring comfort during this difficult time. With sincere sympathy, Art.

“ I worked closely with Isaac at Vant4ge for six years. He was a fantastic coworker, a consummate professional and an expert in his field. He was remarkably patient and kind. If anyone could test his patience, it was me with my technical ineptitude, but Isaac was unflappable and always ready to help. Everyone at Vant4ge loved Isaac. He was a beautiful soul who will be dearly missed. With sympathy, - Jane Rowland
