

Jack H Beckmann

June 12, 1949 - April 22, 2024

Jack H. Beckmann, 74, lifelong resident of Grand Island, passed away on Monday, April 22, 2024.

To honor Jack's wishes cremation was chosen without public services. Karen requests her privacy at this time.

All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements.

Jack was born on June 12, 1949 in Grand Island, son of Howard A. and Anita S. (Ahrens) Beckmann. He graduated from Northwest High School in 1967. After attending college and tech school, Jack returned to the family farm.

He married Karen McLellan in 1985. Over the years he enjoyed planting corn, soybeans, alfalfa and his favorite time of the year was putting up hay. Jack kept busy at the slot machines and yearly trips to Las Vegas for the NHRA drag races. Jack loved his family and time spent with his granddaughters.

Jack is survived by his wife, Karen; son, Jamie (Ann) Beckmann of Grand Island; granddaughters, Allison (Nolan) Horak and Mallory Beckmann; great grandson, Jack Horak; sister, Pat (Dale) Barnes; four-legged friend, Jasper.

Jack was preceded in death by his parents.

“ Whenever I saw Jack he always seemed so calm and a person of reason and respect While I know he was passionate about the things he valued and was strong in his beliefs you knew it without him being angry or disrespectful. Such an uncommon character quality these days. I know you will be missed. To a life well lived, Rock on!
