“ Cheryl, my deepest sympathy to you on Jack's passing. I liked ole' Jack. I feel for you from personal experience and please know that each day will get better. An old rancher told me several years ago that "we never get over it {a spouse's death}, we just get by it." I have always remembered Jack having to have his chicken fried steak on Friday night. Enjoyed our conversations as well. Best of luck to you. Ed Sabatka {Uncle Ed's}

Thank you so much, Jack and I both loved coming into your restaurant. It was always so good! Jack loved talking to you because he lived to cook and really admired you. I was so sorry for Anita's passing. She was always so nice and friendly. Thank you I really appreciate your advice. Please take care!

“ So sorry for your loss. Greenie and I go back a long ways, from camping and skiing in the 70's to the present. My ex and I and Jack and Rae Ann went to Branson, Mo. on a trip in 79 and I ended up pregnant with twins. I always teased Greenie about being the father. Never a dull moment with him around, he always had an answer. Here's to you Greenie, say hi to pops and Steve for me. Betty Ohlman.
