Celebrating Mass will be Father James Golka with Father James Janovec concelebrating. Burial will be in the Westlawn Memorial Park Cemetery.

Jack was born on January 14, 1939 in Grand Island the son of J. Temple and Theresa (Delahunty) Webb. He graduated from St. Mary's High School class of 1956. He served in the U.S. Air Force from September 1956 and honorably discharged in July 1959.

On November 14, 1964 he was united in marriage to Phyllis Gowan. They made Grand Island their home and celebrated their 55th anniversary last Fall. Jack's employment history included International Harvester District Office; self employed with his father in custom hay business and Webb Green House and later, with Farmers Home Administration during the farm crisis. He then worked with Farmers Home and FMHA Contractor for financial and appraisal services and then Equitable Savings and Loan, now Equitable Bank for contracted services.

When his father, Temple died in his arms-out of doors-and on the ground, Jack was not yet 30 years of age; this is when Jack sculpted this sudden and sorrowful loss into his daily Christian outlook, which he carried, lived and shared for the remainder of his earthly life.

Jack shared a love of flowers with Phyllis and together they enjoyed tending to their plants and garden. Jack lived his faith by always helping others and sharing his values with his family, most especially his grandchildren.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife of 55 years, Phyllis; their children, John (Lisa) Webb of Grand Island, James Webb of Grand Island and Barb (Scott) Fowler of Stromsburg; grandchildren, Joe (Jennie) Fowler, Alex Webb, Lauren Webb, Harrison Webb, Hayden Fowler and Leighton Webb and great granddaughter, Frances Fowler.

He is preceded in death by his parents and an infant brother.

“ Jack was one the kindest human beings that I have ever known. I could go on and on with Jack stories but there are just too many to tell. One of the best things Jack was is a Grandpa. I was around when Leighton and Jack would hang out during the summer and school breaks. Jack taught Leighton so many things about plants, bees, compost, etc. but he also taught him about life. I was fortunate to learn some of those things too from Jack as he taught Leighton. Jacks life was never about him it was always about his faith, family, and friends and what he could do for them to make them happy or to cheer them up if we were having a bad day. Jack will be missed! Melinda Powers

“ Dear Phyllis and family,

There are many great memories with Jack that go back to our high school days of the 50s. Jack was a friend that could always be counted on. He worked extremely hard to make a success of his and his father's farm. The good times we had together are many. However, the most memorable time was when Jack and friends went out for an evening, and as though it was meant to be, he met his life partner and future wife, Phyllis. A totally random meeting that was the beginning of a beautiful family.

Our prayers and thoughts are with you at this time.

“ Dear Webb Family:

I don't think I ever knew any of Jack's family, but I had known Jack since 1983 as he was not only a customer of the Bank of Doniphan where I worked, but also, he helped with appraisals and FmHA guarantees for farmers.

You should be extremely proud of Jack as in the mid to late 1980s, with his help, I was able to get 14 guaranteed loans for local farmers that essentially saved their businesses from foreclosure and liquidation.

All of those 14 farmers made successful recoveries and farmed as long as they wanted to after that.

Until his recent retirement, Jack continued to assist Five Points Bank and me with dealing with appraisal issues and performing appraisals. We worked on many appraisals and commercial loans together. None ever resulted in a foreclosure, so many businesses and families prospered because of his work and willingness to deal with appraisals and issues.

He'll truly be missed.
