

Jack Lillibridge Sr.

January 19, 1948 - December 1, 2023

Jack Lillibridge Sr, January 19, 1948-December 1, 2023, of Grand Island passed away peacefully at The Oaks Home in Central City, Ne. Jack was born in Belleville, Kansas to parents Virginia and Jack A.E. Lillibridge.

Jack is survived by a son Jack Jr and Leigh Lillibridge and their son Jonah of Grand Island and a daughter Kaycee and Adam Jensen and her daughter Kennedy of Lincoln.

He is preceded in death by his parents Virginia and Jack A.E. Lillibridge, brother Buddie Ray and sister Verda Spahr.

Jack enjoyed the outdoors. He was an avid hunter and fisherman. If he wasn't outdoors enjoying the good life, he was at the billiard shooting pool with the good ole boys. He had a love for old cars and rock n roll. Jack had an ornery and playful sense of humor that would put a smile on anyone. He had a big heart and a gentle smile and would do anything to help a person out.

Jack chose to be cremated with no formal funeral services.

Tribute Wall

CT

“ *Worked with Jack at JBS. Good old boy
. We visited a lot. Will sure miss him.*

Charles e. Thompson - December 08, 2023 at 12:32 PM

TL

“ *Jack, Leigh, Kaycee and family. We are very sorry to hear of your Dads passing. Years have passed since we last seen Jack, but he was always there for us when needed when we lived next door.
Sending you our deepest condolences and prayers.
Rick & Terri Lawver*

T. Lawver - December 05, 2023 at 08:36 PM