“ So sorry to hear of the passing of cousin Jim. Although older than me, I remember the good times gathering for Christmas and other special occasions. Those William and Pat boys always seemed bigger than life and we're the center of good times. It sounds like uncle Clem had an early influence on Jim as he did many of us. Cheers to a life well lived, condolences to his family, and may Jim rest in peace living you many fond memories.

“ Sympathy to Jo and family. Jim was one of a kind and I am glad I got to know him these past years. Enjoyed fishing trips to South Dakota and ice fishing on Lake of the Woods. Had many good times at Nebraska football games and tailgates if you were around Jim you were in for a good time. I will miss his wit and humor.

“ The stories and memories we have on Jim, alias “The Captain” are infamous in our country. We initially met him - and all the Cook clan - at our family farm by Golden Prairie, Saskatchewan in the early 1970’s. They initially came to hunt Canada geese and upland game. More importantly, it was where the Martin and Cook families became the best of friends. The memories and photos of our hunts and family get-togethers would fill a book. We had so much fun together. We pray for Mary Jo, the family and the entire Cook clan and hope that the memories of Jim will sustain them today and tomorrow. With hugs and love from Michelle and I and our two children Boyd and Tara who so enjoyed and love to be with Jim and Mary Jo.
