James W. Cyboron, 80 of Grand Island died Wednesday, October 19, 2022 at Select Specialty Hospital in Omaha.

Services will be at 10:30 AM Tuesday, October 25th at All Faiths Funeral Home. Daniel Naranjo will officiate. Livestreaming will be on Jim's obituary page at www.giallfaiths.com. Casual dress is requested. Burial will be in the Grand Island Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5-7 PM Monday at All Faiths Funeral Home. Memorials are suggested to the family to be determined later.

Jim was born on April 15, 1942 in Littleton, Colorado the son of Adolph George and Rose Elvina (Hansen) Cyboron. He graduated from Boelus High School class of 1960. On April 11, 1964 he was united in marriage to Sandra Nowicki. They lived on a farm near Boelus, moving to Grand Island in 1967 when he began his career with New Holland. Jim retired in 1998. Following retirement Jim delivered for the Grand Island Independent for 19 years. Some of his enjoyments included woodworking, fishing, gardening and yardwork. In addition to enjoying the outdoors, Jim was an excellent cook. He coached Northwest Little League Baseball for 8 years, having taught many kids how to play.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife of 58 years, Sandy; their son, Brent Cyboron of Chapman and four legged companions, Maddie and Mickey.

He is preceded in death by his parents, brothers George and Dean and a sister Pat.

“ Dear Sandy and Brent, sending you my deepest sympathy. We all lost someone very important to us. Jim was more than a cousin to me. More like a brother and a dear friend. I have many memories of growing up together. Our families visited back and forth a lot. I enjoyed spending time with him again when we moved back to Nebraska. Let your memories bring you comfort. Until we meet again Jim, Rest In Peace. Love, Joyce
