“ *I am a sister of the Clarks family, I am from California. I knew Jim in highschool, he was popular out going funny no 1 football player. So outgoing person. Very intelligent because he married my sister Cher. He was blessed to be married to her as she was to him. They both were two hearts in one . They had two beautiful children and grandson. I know for sure, that Jim is looking down on his family and celebrating with the lord right by his side and his angle's that went before him. His brother in-law his in-laws and the rest of the angles beside him. He will always be there for his family. Looking down from haven and guiding them along the way as they continue with Thier lives. He would say enjoy embrace life because life is to short to be unhappy and always remember that the lord will guide you and you continue to grow with the lord. Remember how much he enjoyed his family and life so please remember Jim as a loving husband and family man . He loved his family and still does eternal. May you rest in the lord's kingdom. RIP Jim.
