

Jeanine L. Brunken

June 8, 1929 - June 21, 2024

Jeanine L. Brunken, 95, of Doniphan, passed away on June 21, 2024 at Grand Island Regional Medical Center. A Graveside Service will be held on Thursday, June 27th at 11 am at Cedarview Cemetery in Doniphan, with Pastor Scott Evans officiating.

Jeanine was born on June 8, 1929 in Doniphan, to George and Margaret (Goesch) Weavers. She was raised and received her education in the Doniphan area, graduating from Doniphan High School. She then attended Kearney State College earning her Teaching Degree.

Jeanine was first married to Wendell Johnson, who passed away in Japan, during the Korean War. Later, she was united in marriage to John Brunken. Jeanine taught for several years in the country schools northwest of Doniphan. She then went on to care for the plants at Conestoga for many years. Later she worked for the Doniphan School with John.

Jeanine was a member of the Doniphan United Methodist Church and the Methodist Ladies Circle. In her spare time, Jeanine enjoyed going camping, tending her flowers, and taking care of the animals on the farm, especially the cats.

Those left to cherish her memory include her daughter, Kathryn (Stanley) Roach of St. Paul; grandchildren, Scott (Stephanie) Roach, Dale Roach; great grandchildren, Thomas (Megan) Roach, David Roach, Kaitlyn Roach, Madison Roach; and one great, great grandson, Alexander Roach.

Jeanine was preceded in death by both of her husbands; and her parents.

Memorials are suggested to the family for future designation.
