“ To the family of Jerome,

We know a number of years have passed since he was employed at Southern, but I was able to find a photograph of him from awhile back. I would gladly email you a digital copy of the entire photo, which includes Jerome and six other crew members, call our Grand Island office and ask for LeAnne. Sending prayers to you all at this time. --LeAnne Doose

“ I have fond memories of Uncle Jerome that go back as far as I can remember. They include him hunting on the farm and climbing the yard light pole when it needed attention. Many years our families got together on Sunday afternoons, either at Grandma Weiss' or at Uncle Jerome's. I remember Uncle Jerome and Dad always enjoyed their conversations as they talked and laughed over current events. I remember playing with Dan and I remember Connie as a baby. We weren't together as much but I do remember Greg, also.

Sharon and I are praying for you Aunt Lolita, Aunt Beverly, and Aunt Marilyn especially and also for all in the family. We trust that you will find comfort, strength and courage in the Lord at this time.

Love,
Alvin and Sharon Weiss
