“ Wanted to send my sympathies to the family and friends of Jesse. I am Tyson Rose's younger sister, and I cannot agree more with Kit Myers comment. Jesse was always a nice and kind friend. I will not forget the memories of my brother and him being friends and neighbors. I am so sorry for the loss of his precious life. I am praying for you all.

“ We were bless to know Jess his smile and his kindness to my daughter Amanda and granddaughter Akela was very special. We believed that he was a son-in-law to us and a very positive infulence on our family. He and his smile will be missed as we believe he was truly one of the best young men that we have ever known. He will sadly be missed forever!
With Love!

“ I will always have fond memories of Jesse. I loved hanging out with the kid back in high school. We attended junior high and high school together. We went to the same church and did Jr. and Sr. SPYS throughout all of it. We even traveled together on a couple mission trips. I remember one time on the way out to New Jersey for one of those trips we were on all kinds of toll roads and running a little low on cash. We happened to have Dan (his brother) and Jesse in the same van, so we said, "Hey Jess! Dan called you a 'butthead'! Yell and fight!!" This was done because we had to pay in for swearing and so they swore at each for $5 each! It was a great time!

Jesse was such a fun loving, dude. And I really mean that. I know 'dude' can be an odd word to use. I use it because I don't think Jesse ever meant ill-will towards anyone. He was such a nice guy. He wasn't a jock, or a drama guy, or a fan of all things goth. He was just a nice guy that people got along with. Even if you didn't hang out with him, it wasn't because you had a problem with him. But you would always see him around with a smile on his face and some goofy to say.

*Jesse, you will be missed and you will continue to be loved.
Peace brother.
