

Joseph "Joe" H. Ewoldt

May 7, 1946 - December 29, 2024

Joseph "Joe" H. Ewoldt, age 78, of Grand Island, passed away on December 29, 2024 at Grand Island Regional Medical Center.

A graveside service will be held on Monday, January 6th at 11:00am at the Grand Island City Cemetery with Dan Naranjo officiating. Memorials are suggested to the family for future designation. Condolences can be left at www.giallfaiths.com.

Joe was born on May 7, 1946 in Hastings. Later, his parents Carl and Viola (Matthews) Ewoldt, moved the young family to Grand Island where Carl was part of a very large established farming family.

In 1964, after graduating from Northwest High School, Joe enlisted in the Army National Guard. He served for four years, helping with relief during many floods in NE during that time.

On June 6, 1966, Joe was united in marriage to Carol Ann Spahr. He and Carol worked together at Color Craft, shared the hobby of competitive target shooting, family farming, and raising their daughter, Dawn.

Joe was employed over the years at several different places around Grand Island. He worked for Color Craft Manufacturing as the night shift lead, and parts manager at GI Dodge. He started working for David Larson at his auto parts store, which over the years has changed ownership several times from National Auto Parts, to among others, Tagart Auto Parts and the current the Napa Auto Parts Store.

He enjoyed watching westerns and WWII movies, and spending time with family and friends.

Those left to cherish his memory include his daughter, Dawn (Brent) Richter of Colorado Springs, CO, and special friends, Ralph and Ramona Lucas, and Linda Clark.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents and friend, Jim Clark.
