“ I am very sorry about your loss. Death hurts all those left to mourn the loss of such a precious life. It also saddens God when he sees our pain. Jesus compared death to sleep and he has the power to awaken those that are sleeping in death. (John 11:11,25) Soon death will be no more and our broken hearts will be healed. Until that time comes may God grant you strength and peace.

“ I have so many great memories with my baby. But the one that I will always hold closest to my heart, was the first day I was able to kangaroo with my sweet angel. For 3 weeks after he was born I was only able to touch him inside of his incubator. Being born at only 23 weeks 6 days he was so small and fragile. When we finally got to be skin to skin with each other it was the best feeling in the world. For all 58 days of his life Josiah fought a tough fight. He had many good days that I thank the Lord for blessing us with. Now that my baby is watching over us I still thank the Lord for allowing us to have had him in our life's. My angel in pain free and at peace. Miss you tons baby mommy and daddy love you.
