In her spare time, she was also the Housekeeping supervisor for Wedgewood Care Home and later on Tiffany Square.

Joyce's big heart for animals brought in many stray cats and dogs that became like family. Her farm upbringing gave her a love and appreciation for horses that lasted a lifetime. She adored all of her grandchildren and supported their events. Joyce enjoyed watching her soap operas and Wheel of Fortune was her favorite game show. “ Duane, family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Joyce. I took care of her at wood river nursing home and several times at her home when needed. I loved her laughter. She loved to talk about her kids and grandkids. I will never forget the evening when Larry's son who was in the military came by and surprised her after supper it was a great moment to see She was so proud of him. Remember she may be gone but she will always be with you

“ I remember your laugh and how fun it was!! You were a bubbly woman and grandmother to Larry and Mandy's children. You were a hard worker and were a loving woman!! It was my pleasure knowing you and spending time with you at family holidays when the Hall's celebrated Easter and Thanksgiving and Birthdays. Rest in Peace and Loves to Mandy and family.
