Judy was born on April 5, 1940 in Omaha the daughter of William and Ethel (Fieldman) Hlava. She graduated from Ravenna High School. On June 1, 1958 she was united in marriage to Edward VanWinkle. This union was blessed with children, Corey, Kirby, Kelly and Edward. They farmed southwest of Cairo.

Judy was employed by the Cairo Record for many years. Later in life she received her Registered Nursing Degree from Kearney State College. Judy worked as a nurse for care homes and retired from St. Francis Medical Center following 15 years of service. She loved her involvement with her family working as a bookkeeper for their family businesses. Her memberships included the Cairo United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women. She served on the committee for the Cairo Veterans Memorial. Judy and her husband Ed enjoyed traveling, antiquing and had a great love of supporting their community.

In addition to her husband Edward who died February 26, 2014, she was preceded in death by her parents and beloved aunts and uncles.

Those left to cherish her memory include her children, Corey (Natalie) VanWinkle, Kirby (Kayla) VanWinkle, Kelly VanWinkle and Edward VanWinkle; grandchildren, Jason, Randi, Eddie, Brad and Jayden; great-grandchildren, Morgan, Ethan, Camille, Lilly and Wynter; nephew, Frank Hochstetler and niece, Karen (Bob) Lamb.
