

Karen Hansen

June 13, 1948 - August 23, 2019

Karen (Fiedler) Hansen, 71, of Grand Island died on Friday, surrounded by family. Per her wishes, no services will be held. All Faiths Funeral Home is serving the family.

Karen was born in 1948 in Lexington, Nebraska, to Julia (Klauz) and Clarence Fiedler. She grew up in Grand Island, Nebraska, the second of five children in the Fiedler family. She was a graduate of Grand Island Senior High school. Karen married James "Jim" Hansen in 1972. They settled in Central City, Nebraska.

Later in life, Karen and Jim moved to Hordville to open R Place Cafe, and later Hansen's Inn in Hampton, until retiring to Grand Island.

Karen enjoyed cooking (she loved to feed people!), gardening, and watching classic films. She had a special affinity for working with children, the elderly, and animals.

She is survived by her daughter, Carrie Hansen, and granddaughter, Ivy, both of Lincoln; and by her sister Connie (Alan) Bosselman, and brothers, Dennis (Dolly) Fiedler, David Fiedler, and Rodney (Tami) Fiedler, all of Grand Island; nephews Shane, Troy, Jason, Jared, Joshua; and niece Ashley.

Karen in preceded in death by her mother, father, and husband.

She will be missed for her home cooking, sense of humor, easy laughter, and her kindness.

“ To all of Karen's family💕 My husband took care of Karen's yard and she was always so good to him... very kind and she always remembered him at Christmas time. He will greatly miss talking with her and seeing her smiling face!

Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.✝️ We are so very sorry for your loss.

*With our heartfelt sympathy,
Sincerely,
Bob and Sandy Peterson*
