Karen was born May 4, 1945, in Creston, Iowa, the second child of Glenn and Fern (Rabe) Wagner. She graduated from high school in Griswold, Iowa.

On June 15, 1963, Karen married David L. Milne. For 30 years she and David farmed in Griswold before moving to Wyoming in 1990. During their time there, she helped her husband at the hog confinement operation he worked at, among other employment. Then in 2001, they moved to Aurora, Nebraska, and she was employed at Grain Place Foods.

Karen was an avid reader and a western history buff. She loved her time spent in Wyoming and enjoyed the western culture and rodeos. Her other enjoyments included plants, flowers and watching game shows and rodeos. Those who cherish Karen's memory include her husband, David; daughters, Jennifer (Ivan) Hongsermeier and Brenda Dreher (fiancé, Dustin Schinlaub); grandchildren, Dr. Natasha Hongsermeier-Graves (Danny), Noah Hongsermeier (fiancé, Kasey VanWinkle), Dalton Milne, and Tytania, Wyatt and Kamdyn Dreher.

She is also survived by a brother, Jim (Sandy) Wagner; and niece, Amy Jo (Chris) Wagner.

Karen was preceded by her parents and a nephew, Scott Wagner.
