

Kim Bryan Weiss

May 6, 1962 - January 22, 2014

Kim Bryan Weiss, 51, of Juniata, formerly of Grand Island, died Wednesday, January 22, 2014 at Bryan LGH East in Lincoln.

Kim Bryan Weiss Celebration of life service will be held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday at All Faiths Funeral Home with military honors provided by the United States Marines and the Grand Island Veterans Honor Guard. Rev. Lonnie Logan will officiate. Cremation will follow the service and burial of ashes will be at a later date.

Visitation will be an hour prior service time at the funeral home.

Kim was born May 6, 1962 in Grand Island to Arnold and Irene (Semm) Weiss.

Survivors include his fiancée and love of his life, Rhonda Voboril of Juniata and his sister and her husband, Susan (Donn) Cohn Hansen of North Platte.

Those also left to cherish his memory include his nieces, Wendi, Shelly and Amy and nephews, Jeffery, Brandon (Staci) and Aaron.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Gary Semm and Robert Weiss; and an infant brother and infant sister.

Kim grew up in Grand Island, graduating from Northwest High School. He entered the United States Marines on May 19, 1980 and was honorably discharged May 19, 1982. Kim's greatest source of pride was in his military service.

He enjoyed carpentry, fishing and the outdoors. Kind and thoughtful, he was known as the "fun uncle". Kim will be remembered for his quirky, amazing sense of humor.

Memorials are suggested to the family.
