“ Kim went to school and graduated with my little sister, Christi Gilliland. And was very good friends with my sister Angela as well. She was a great friend, one you could always count on for anything. I have very fond memories of her hanging out with my sister at my house. And she even went with our family to Great Lakes IL to Christi's Navy graduation. Prayers for her son, family and friends.

“ Kim and I met at my job and we became good friends. We talked about a lot of things and one Saturday she decided she wanted to go to the dirt track in McCool Junction with me. We had so many laughs and she was learning what car was what and she liked it except the heat. But otherwise we had a blast. She got me a God's fingerprint and to this day it's hanging on my wall. I will forever be grateful to her and our friendship and all texts we sent each other. I will miss her smile and laugh. Sorry for your loss to Tylan and the family.

“ I met Kim through Kristen Reeser on Independence Day in 2004 or 2005. Right away I was smitten with the sheer joy she brought into every gathering we had together. Kim was easy to talk to, a fierce friend, keeper of secrets, and steady prayer warrior. I could always count on Kim in good times and in bad. One of my best memories is when she asked me to crochet her a ladybug blanket. I was just learning at the time but, I did my absolute best and the blanket came out okay but, the ladybug looked like something out of a Picasso painting! Kim was over the moon about it though. She said, "No one else will ever have one exactly like it." That's who Kim was and I will miss her smile, her exuberance, and her light.
