“ This was taken at my 12th (September 1982) birthday party. From my left are My sister Katie, Brenae Pearson, my sister Tammy, me, and Kristi next to me. We grew up together. I don't remember that party, but a memory I'd like to share is: one of my earliest memories Tammy Kristi and I used to play under a huge tree where her Dog Mariah was chained. We would play house and I remember we had a broom out there and we would sweep the dirt. I'm pretty sure Tammy was always the Mom. Kristi also had a wooden kids play house in the yard, we played in there too. I love you Kristi and miss you already. My thoughts and prayers to her family, I know I don't know Kristi's kids and Andy very well, but please let's change that. I'm so glad they are televising it. I'm not up to joining you at the funeral home in person, but my parents and I will be watching.
