Larry was born on January 2, 1942 in Grand Island, son of Edwin and Marguerite (Swartz) Adams.

As a lifelong resident of Grand Island, Larry received his education from Grand Island Senior High School and began employment at Nebraska Truck Center in the parts department. Over four decades Larry memorized all the of the part numbers, past and present. He spent 45 years teaching young employees and serving the local farmers and over the road truckers.

On August 31, 1963, Larry married his lifelong sweetheart, Barbara

Grudzinski.

Larry enjoyed researching family genealogy, taking peaceful walks and was an avid fan of all Nebraska Husker sports. Larry was active in his church community, serving for many years as Branch President, counselor in bishoprics, and teacher. He found his passion in teaching seminary to the younger church members. If a helping hand was needed, whether it was making new church members feel welcomed or chaperoning seminary students to a dance, Larry was always there. Larry adored his family and instilled in his sons love of family, faith, and also his insatiable sense of humor and wit.

His memory is loved by his wife, Barbara Adams of Grand Island; sons, Joseph (Connie) Adams of Grand Island, Christopher (Eppie) Adams of Evanston, WY, David Adams of Cedar Rapids, IA, Jay Adams of Omaha, and Jared (Val) Adams of Seward; brother, William "Bill" (Trudy) Adams of Lincoln; numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, extended family and friends.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents, Edwin and Marguerite Adams and mother and father-in-law.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated at a later date.
