Larry was born on October 16, 1949 in Grand Island to Jerry and Vernabell (Livingston) Cornelius. He attended District 29 school before graduating from Northwest High School in 1968. While in High School he helped on several farms around the area. Larry then moved to Denver to a trade school for drafting.

On May 23, 1970 he was united in marriage to Ellie Anderson. To this union two children were born. The couple raised their family in Grand Island.

Larry worked for Redman Industries and then with the City of Grand Island Public Works as a drafting engineer aid for 42 years, before retiring in 2012.

After he retired, he helped Donna, his daughter in-law with her home improvement business.

Larry and his family enjoyed taking trips to Colorado to ski and made many memories. He liked to go camping, boating, fishing and deer hunting. Larry could be found relaxing to an old western movie with a cold beer. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to his family, friends, and even strangers. He was a jack of all trades and could help with everything from home projects to cars. He was an usher at St. Mary's Cathedral for 40 years and a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, Ellie Cornelius of Grand Island; children, Paul (Donna) Cornelius of Phillips and Rose (Will) Saalfeld of Lincoln; siblings, Rick (Kathy) Cornelius of Grand Island, Mike (Colleen) Cornelius of Ravenna, Carol (Bob) Heinen of Grand Island and Diane (Dave) Spotanski of St. Libory; brothers and sisters in-law, Larry (Pat) Anderson of Grand Island, Marvin (Marsha) Anderson of Grand Island, Ron (Pam) Anderson of O'Neill, Joe Anderson of Grand Island, Marilyn Jacobson of Denver, Rose Marie (Rusty) McPhillips of Nebraska City, Sue (Brad) Czaplowski of Grand Island, Linda (John) Berry of Carter Lake, IA and Helen (Steve) Parr of Roseland; numerous nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.

“ I’ve known Larry since high school. And would run into him when I was visiting the engineering department in City Hall. I always made an effort to say “Hi” or nod at him if he was involved in something when I was there. I’d see Ellie when during the course of my work day when I’d stop at Kelly Supply. Ellie worked in the office. Great people, both of them.

There was this time, while we were in high school, the group of guys I hung out with found out from Larry, his parents had a ‘50 something two door hardtop Chevy they had driven over the years, resting unceremoniously on its side atop a pile of scrap metal. I think it was a Saturday, we met Larry at his parents farm with the intention of rescuing the Chevy. That had to be at least 60 years ago! I still think about that car, the windows were all intact. They may have been cracked the interior was still clean and not too badly rodent infested. Most of the dents were minor, at least the ones we could see.

Larry would, if it was possible stop what he was doing and we’d visit briefly, those times I’d run into him at City Hall. If my wife and I would happen to see both Larry and his wife, Ellie when we would see them out shopping, we would always take time and visit. Mostly we’d visit about our children. Rest in peace.
