Larry received his education in Gothenburg, graduating with the Class of 1968. He then attended trade school in Sterling, CO. An owner/operator truck driver, he lived most of his life in the Grand Island area. Larry drove a truck for over 30 years, and his favorite was his Peterbilt "Gertrude". He was currently employed as security in the Texas oil fields.

Larry was never happier than when he was covered in grease from his mechanic work. He loved hot rods and fast cars. Well read and self educated, he could converse with anyone on any subject. Whatever Larry did, it was 'Larry's Way.'

Memorials are suggested to American Heart Association or to the family.
