

LeAnn Kay Crawford

February 4, 1962 - March 1, 2017

LeAnn Kay Crawford, 55, of Anchorage, Alaska, formerly of Phillips, passed away on March 1, 2017.

Service and celebration of LeAnn's life will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 29, at the Phillips Activity Hall in Phillips. Her ashes will be buried in Phillips Cemetery.

LeAnn was born February, 4, 1962 in Omaha, the only daughter of Larey and Marlene Crawford. She grew up in Phillips before relocating to Alaska. She loved Alaska, her job with United States Fish and Wildlife Service and the many friends she made while living there.

Those left to cherish her memory include her son, Joshua Phillips currently with the National Guard; parents, Larey and Marlene of Phillips; brothers and sisters-in-law, John and Kim Crawford of Aurora and Todd and Jody Crawford of Greer, SC; many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews; close relatives and friends.

Memorials are suggested to the family.
