“ Letha Brooks

“ Letha and I became friends when she was my sister-in-law's roommate during dental school. What a delight she was! She'd light up any room, was fun, energetic, and her laughter was contagious. I lost contact with her as our lives got busier with children. I was pleased to know she found love with Bill, and then horribly mournful when Bill died. So glad to read that others accepted and returned the love she offered. She is missed! My condolences to her family and closer friends.
