Linda was born October 1, 1948 in Humphrey, Nebraska to Arthur and Rose Marie Greisen, the eldest of 4 children.

Linda grew up on a farm near Humphrey, NE and graduated from High School in 1966.

On April 27, 1968, she was united in marriage to Marvin Wemhoff, together they raised 2 children, John and Angela. Following their marriage Marvin was drafted by the U.S. Army. Linda was able to stay near while he was training in Colorado Springs, but then returned to Humphrey to stay with her parents while Marvin served in Vietnam.

After Marvin's discharge from the Army the couple made their home in Grand Island. Linda was employed by several local businesses, and retired in 2009 after 18 years of employment as the Vice Chancellor at the Diocese of Grand Island.

Linda had many talents. Her compassion and love led her to go on many mission trips, in the states and abroad. While working for the Grand Island Diocese she was assigned to many specialist groups to help children and any in need. Linda was also an active member of Blessed Catholic Church.

Linda enjoyed the outdoors. She made many fishing trips to Canada and loved her large flower gardens she grew. Linda enjoyed quilting in her spare time. Linda adored her family and loved to chase after her grandkids.

Those left to cherish her memory include her spouse Marvin of 49 years; son, John (Cindy) Wemhoff of Grand Island, and their children, Jack, Kaitlyn "Katie", and Addison Wemhoff and daughter Angela (Dave) McDermott of Grand Island and their children, Samuel "Sam", Luke and Henry McDermott; mother, RoseMarie Greisen of Topeka, KS; brothers, Fr. Thomas Greisen of Omaha, Dan (Rosemary) Greisen of Sunny Vale, CA; sister, Lois (John) Pfeifer of Topeka, KS; special friend, Bobbie Gonzalez and many, many other friends.

Linda was preceded in death by her father Arthur Greisen.

Linda's fight with Primary Sclerosing Cholangitis (PSC) brought to light how important organ donation is; she would want everyone to consider becoming an organ donor.

Memorials are suggested to Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church and the MaryKnoll Lay Missionaries.

“ This morning when I was reading the Columbus Telegram, I felt very sad when I read about Linda's passing. She and I went to Grand Island Business School together, and she and I worked together at Mead Lumber Co. in Columbus. I heard from her each Christmas. I always like to hear from her! This summer I had invited her to our 50th Business School Reunion in Grand Island, but she was not able to join us. I'm so very sorry to hear that she suffered from PSC. May God keep all of you in His care! Love from Carolyn Stuthman Lueschen of Columbus, Nebraska
