Linda was born on August 16, 1955 in San Antonio, TX at Lockland AFB to Marvin J. and Alice (Robinson) Gonzales. As the child of a military family, Linda grew up in many places. Linda was preceded in death by her parents; and father-in-law, Ralph Peters and several aunts and uncles.

“ I worked with Linda at the hospital and we shared many a laugh and lunch together solving the world problems and always wondered why the government officials did not ever ask our opinion. Linda's artistry always amazed me. Was lucky to be the recipient of some of her work.. Linda and I were fans of the series Boston Legal and we would hash over the series. At the end of each show, Alan and Denny would meet on the balcony and smoke a cigar and have a drink. So that what we said when it was time to eat lunch "see you on the balcony ". She will be so missed. My condolences to the family...

“ Most recently I ran into Linda at Hobby Lobby, the catch up lasted an hour. The laughter we had back in the corner was so much fun. Such a friendly gal. She'll surely be missed by all.

“ Craig and family. We are so saddened to read of Linda's passing. We have lost touch over the years, but I worked with her for several years at St. Francis. She and my husband loved sharing jokes with each other. Linda was always so great to work with; she always had a smile. Her paintings were fantastic. When I retired from St. Francis, she gave me a painting that she had made on a cupboard door. It is so neat. Our thoughts are with you. Rich and LaVonne Catron
