“Connie, Sharon, Jerry, so sorry to hear of your Uncle's passing, all tho I had never met him I've learned a lot about him from you. I know he was a kind and gentle man and will be missed, but hoping you have lots of memories to last you a lifetime and to share with other family members that are missing him too.

Lloyd looks and reminds me so much of his brother Henry and your Dad.

Please except our condolences for the entire family at this sad time in your life, but we know God called him home for a reason.

Being one of Lloyd's youngest cousins, my favorite memories are his laughter and storytelling with my parents, plus the analyzation of anything and everything mechanical. He loved being with people and would do most anything for anybody; that was just the way he was. On numerous occasions, he drove his elderly aunts to Colorado for a visit, and later he never forgot to stop in Missouri to see my family and me. It is with sadness that another chapter has closed for us Zikmund cousins. We shall miss him.
