Louis was born on April 8, 1930 at Lacona, Iowa, the son of William and Veronica (Endres) Walk. Following high school, Louis received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Drake University in Des Moines. His studies continued at the College of Osteopathic Medicine in Davenport, serving his residency at Davenport Osteopathic Hospital and Wm. Beaumont General Hospital in El Paso, Texas. He practiced family medicine in the Iowa Quad Cities. In 2000 he moved to Grand Island where he practiced medicine with his wife Kathy at Employers Health Care for 12 years.

During his career he also served in the United State Army for over 45 years, retiring as a Brigadier General. He was the head of a Green Berets squadron for the Brigadier General Special Forces serving in the Vietnam War rescuing wounded.

He married Nancy Spencer and this union was blessed with sons, David and Neal. Later he was united in marriage to Dr. Kathleen Anderson Bliese on January 9, 2005. Dr. Walk continued to practice as a disability's physician for Dan Thayer Law Firm. Together he and Dr. Kathy traveled the world serving others on mission trips.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, Kathy; sons, David and Neal and grandchildren, Shayleigh, Aurielle, Mason, Carson, Tobin and Ezra. He is preceded in death by his parents; sister, Marcella and brothers Herbert, Clarence and Giles.
