

Louise Morrison-Wood

May 27, 1937 - October 8, 2019

Louise Morrison-Wood, 82, of Grand Island, died Tuesday, October 8th at CHI- Health St. Francis. A funeral service will be held on Saturday, October 12, 2019 at 10 am at First Faith United Methodist church, with a visitation held on Friday evening from 5-7 pm, also at the church. Reverend Doctor Trudy Anderson will officiate.

Louise was born on May 27, 1937 to Earl and Zelma (Montgomery) Holder, on the family farm in Cairo, NE. She grew up in both Cairo and Grand Island, and graduated from Grand Island Senior High School in 1955.

On January 11, 1959, she was united in marriage to Jim Morrison. From this union, two children were born, Jeff and Stacia. Later on, in May of 1998, Louise married Vernon Wood.

Louise spent 25 years working at Super Sweet before moving to Red Lobster for 18+ years. She was a member of First Faith United Methodist. She was the founder of Interphase Inspiration. Her love for music allowed her to make many friends.

Those left to cherish her memory include her children Jeff (Maria) Morrison, Stacia Morrison; grandchildren, Shantel (DJ), Tyrene (Christian), Trey, Tiffany, Drew, Alli, Sabrina, Kyle, Jama; sisters-in-law, Mary Holder, Pat Holder, Dora (Rick) Johnson; and multiple nieces and nephews.

Louise was preceded in death by both husbands, her parents, and her siblings, Gene Holder, Wilner Holder, Marilyn Brooks, and James Holder.

Memorials are suggested to the family for later designation.
