Her shop was called "Marcia's Homemade Crafts" and she enjoyed working and teaching all kinds of handcrafts all her life. There is not a family member or friend who does not have a needlepoint, tatted or crocheted item of hers to remember her by, be it a baby blanket, Afghan, Christmas ornament, Barbie doll clothes, name doilies or even a bookmark. She loved to gift people with her talents.

Marcia was a member of Grace Covenant Church in Grand Island, and was also active in Sunday School and Bible Studies. Marcia also volunteered several years at St. Francis Hospital.
